CAPTION COMPETITION

This is the first of what will become a regular feature in Newslines

This photo was taken during Shaun Dargan and Kenny Herriot's recent cycle from Mull of Galloway to Shetland to promote Clober Farm. Shaun can just be seen in the background as Kenny steams ahead!

The winner will receive an ATC3K Waterproof Camcorder - This compact, water proof, shock resistant all-in-one digital video camera has been designed for hands-free use and easily attaches to any piece of equipment.

In the limelight

If you have a photo that you would like us to include in a future caption competition please email it to us at the address below. 3 runners up will receive a Pikstik reaching aid, which enables users to effectively reach for items minimising discomfort.

SIS T-Shirts Around the world (or close to home)

If you have a photo of you wearing your SIS t-shirt (or if you need an SIS t-shirt!) and wish us to include it in the magazine, please email us at: info@sisonline.org Each entry will receive an SIS Bottle/Can opener.

Photography Competition (for the next edition)

We will be running a photography competition in the next edition of Newslines so please send in your entries. The theme is Scenery. All photos must be original. There will be 3 prizes and entries will be judged by a panel from the Spinal Injuries Unit.

Please send any entries for the above competitions to: info@sisonline.org or post to Spinal Injuries Scotland, Festival Business Centre, 150 Brand Street, Glasgow G51 1DH.
